

Economic Impact of Out-of-State Visitors 2016 Sumter County Analysis

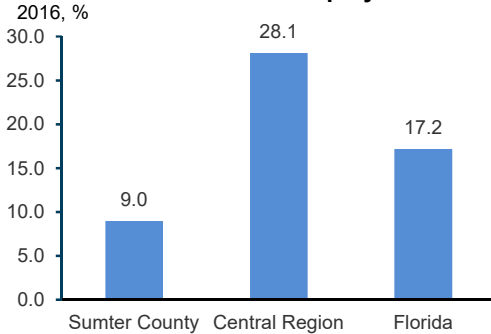

Sumter County Summary

Tourism makes important contributions to the Sumter County economy. Out-of-state direct visitor spending amounted to $166.9 million in 2016. Including indirect and induced impacts, tourism generated $243.7 million in total business sales, 2,346 jobs, $64 million in income, and $39.4 million in state and local tax revenues.

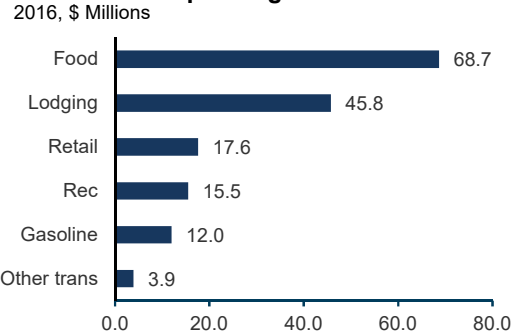

Direct Visitor Spending

Tourism Share of Total Employment

Direct Visitor Spending

Summary Tourism Impacts, 2016
	Direct	Total
Sales, $mils	166.9	243.7
Employment	1,682	2,346
Income, $mils	39.3	64.0

Tourism-Generated Tax Revenues
2016, $ Millions
Federal	17.2
State	15.3
Local	6.9
Total	39.4